No legal objection in light of [redacted] expressed understanding that he may not copyright the work nor receive any royalties from its publication. In addition, [redacted] should make it clear to prospective publishers that he prepared the document as part of his official duties as a CIA employee, and that the paper is thus a U.S. Government document which cannot be copyrighted by either him or the publisher. Defer to DDA's view on whether approval of the request is advisable as a matter of policy.
